

© Tooth
S.F. Parkin

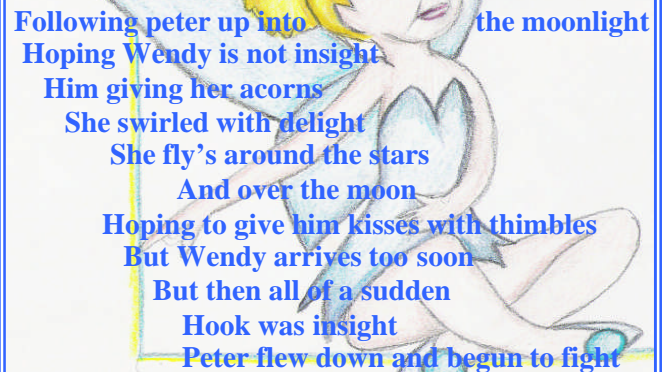

The little teeth you have lost
The tooth fairy wants them at all cost
She fly's around from place to place
Looking udder your pillowcase
She'll huff and puff with all her might
To open your tooth box and look inside
Then she cries with joy and laughter too and leaves some money just for you Hoping you will buy more sweets and rot your teeth for her to keep
So brush your teeth night and day
To keep the tooth fairy faraway

Flower Fairies
© The Estate of Cicely Mary Barker

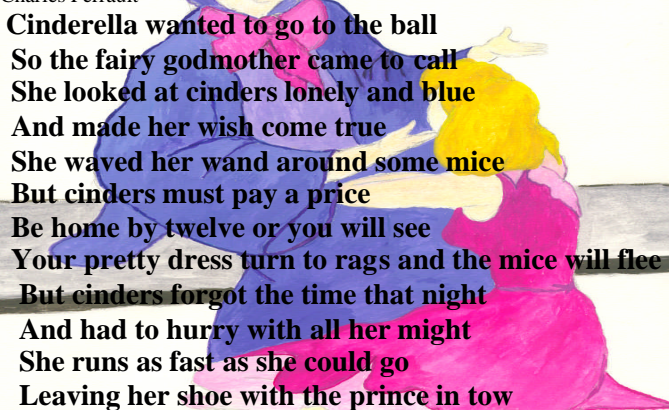

Cicily fairies are the most beautiful of all
They blossom in springtime and summer and fall
They are so delicate and looks so sweet
You have to pick one just to keep

Tinkerbell
© James M Barrie
Ownership GOSHCC

Following peter up into the moonlight
Hoping Wendy is not insight
Him giving her acorns
She swirled with delight
She fly's around the stars
And over the moon
Hoping to give him kisses with thimbles
But Wendy arrives too soon
But then all of a sudden
Hook was insight
Peter flew down and begun to fight

Fairy Godmother
© Charles Perrault

Cinderella wanted to go to the ball
So the fairy godmother came to call
She looked at cinders lonely and blue
And made her wish come true
She waved her wand around some mice
But cinders must pay a price
Be home by twelve or you will see
Your pretty dress turn to rags and the mice will flee
But cinders forgot the time that night
And had to hurry with all her might
She runs as fast as she could go
Leaving her shoe with the prince in tow